NOTES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

OPINION
The views expressed in the journal are those of the authors, and do not necessarily coincide with those of the Editor or the Editorial Boards.

REFEREES
The International Journal of Education Through Art is a refereed journal. Referees are chosen for their expertise within the subject area. They are asked to comment on comprehensibility, originality and scholarly worth of the article submitted.

LENGTH
Articles should be between 4,500 and 6,000 words and ideally around 5,600 words in length.

SUBMITTING
Articles/visual texts should be original and not under consideration by any other publication. The submission and review process is now carried out completely online; please register for the journal at: http://oj.s.library.ubc.ca/index.php/ijeta/index

LANGUAGE
The journal uses standard British English. The editor reserves the right to alter usage to this end. Foreign words and sentences inserted in the text should be italicised. Because of the interdisciplinary nature of the readership, jargon should be kept to a minimum. Whereas articles in Spanish, Portuguese, Chinese, Greek and Japanese may be submitted for review, translation into English will be the responsibility of authors should they be accepted for publication.

SOFTWARE
The journal is set with Apple Macintosh equipment and reset using QuarkXPress; it is therefore best whenever possible to supply text in Word as this crosses easily from PC to Mac systems.

AUTHOR BIOGRAPHY
A note on each author is required and this should include an institution or address. This should not exceed 80 words and must not be contained in the article, use the metadata section. Authors should also indicate how they wish their names to appear. The custom is without the numerical sequence runs throughout the article. These should be kept as short as possible and to a minimum, and be identified by a superscript numeral.

ABSTRACT AND KEYWORDS
Each article should be accompanied by an abstract, which should not exceed 150 words in length and should concentrate on the significant findings. Authors may submit a second abstract in a first language other than English also where appropriate. Each article should also be supplied with between four and six keywords, or two-word phrases, that are core to what is being discussed.

HEADINGS
The main text should be clearly organized with a hierarchy of heading and subheadings. Main headings should be typed in lower case, bold and increased size; secondary headings should be in lower case, bold italic.

QUOTATIONS
Quotations exceeding 40 words are displayed (indented) in the text. These paragraph quotations must be indented with an additional one-line space above and below and without quotes.

CAPTIONS
The following is the agreed style for captions, and as much information as is available should be provided:

NOTES
Notes will appear at the side of appropriate pages, but the numerical sequence runs throughout the article. These should be kept as short as possible and to a minimum, and be identified by a superscript numeral.

REFERENCES
These should be listed alphabetically at the end of paper and must adhere to the following models:

VISUAL MATERIALS
Illustrations within articles are invited to assist discussion of artworks, learning activities and/or environments. In general, only greyscale reproduction is available. All illustrations, photographs, diagrams, maps, etc. should follow the same numerical sequence and be shown as Figure 1, Figure 2, etc. The journal welcomes well-illustrated articles. Full colour is available in online issues, but in general grey scale is used in hard copy.
Please do not send original slides, photographs or other artworks.

Note if the article contains illustrations, please include (embed) them in low resolution format in the word file, but separate high resolution files will be required if the article is accepted for publication. Authors must follow the advice in the online submission system. If articles are selected for publication, contributors will be asked to provide images to the Editor in Tiff format (300 dpi, 145 mm/1740 pixel width).

COPYRIGHT
Before publication, authors are requested to assign copyright to the Journal subject to retaining their right to reuse the material in other publications written or edited by themselves and due to be published at least one year after initial publication in the Journal. A credit to the publisher and the original source should be cited if an article that appears in the Journal is subsequently reprinted elsewhere.

PERMISSIONS
Copyright clearance should be indicated by the contributor and is always the responsibility of the contributor. The source has to be indicated beneath the text. When they are on a separate sheet or file, indication must be given as to where they should be placed in the text. The author has responsibility to ensure that the proper permissions/model for visual image releases are obtained.
