NOTES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

The Catalan Journal of Communication & Cultural Studies (CJCS) accepts original contributions for consideration for publication. The guidance on this page is by no means comprehensive and must be read in conjunction with the Intellect Style Guide, which can be found here: http://www.intellectbooks.co.uk/page/index,name=journalresources/

All manuscripts must be submitted to: https://callisto.newgen.co/intellect/index.php/CJCS/about/submissions

ARTICLES

Articles should be between 6,000–8,000 words. They must be based on original research or offer well-grounded theoretical contributions, they must be written in English in a clear and concise style and they must not be under consideration by any other publication. All submissions will be uploaded on the Journal’s online platform. The author(s) must upload at least two files: (1) ‘Article text’: a blinded copy of the article containing an abstract (max. 150 words) and six keywords; (2) ‘Metadata’: a separate metadata file with the title of the article, name of the author(s), institutional affiliation, institutional address and e-mail, biographical note, abstract, keywords, and reference list of the article.

Images and graphs should be provided in hi-res .jpeg format in a separate file (can be .zip) under ‘Images and Figures’. Authors must avoid any information within the article that makes it possible to infer their identity (acknowledgements must be avoided at this stage and references to their own work must be done in the third person). Articles that attain to minimum quality standards and fall within the aims and scope of the journal will be uploaded on the Journal’s online platform. The author(s) must upload at least two files: (1) ‘Article text’: a blinded copy of the article containing an abstract (max. 150 words) and six keywords; (2) ‘Metadata’: a separate metadata file with the title of the article, name of the author(s), institutional affiliation, institutional address and e-mail, biographical note, abstract, keywords, and reference list of the article.

Illustrations

We welcome images illustrating an article. All images need a resolution of at least 300 dpi. All images should be supplied independently of the article, not embedded into the text itself. The files should be clearly labelled and an indication given as to where they should be placed in the text. Reproduction will normally be in black-and-white. Images sent in as e-mail attachments should accordingly be in greyscale.

The image should always be accompanied by a suitable caption (the omission of a caption is only acceptable if you feel that the impact of the image would be reduced by the provision of written context). The following is the agreed style for captions:

Please note the colon after the number and the terminating full point, even if the caption is not a full sentence. Copyright clearance should be indicated by the contributor and is always the responsibility of the contributor.

METADATA

A metadata file must accompany all contributions. Authors must check that each of the following have been supplied correctly:

• Article Title.
• Author Name.
• Author addresses – the submitted material should include details of the full postal and e-mail addresses of the contributor for correspondence purposes.
• Author Biography – authors should include a short biography of around 100 words, specifying the institution with which they are affiliated.
• Reference list.
• Abstract of 150 words; this will go on to the Intellect website.

LANGUAGE

The journal follows standard British English. Use ‘ize’ endings instead of ‘ise’.

Second Pages/Planman
• Keywords – six words, or two-word phrases. There is a serious reduction in an article’s ability to be searched for if the keywords are missing.

NOTES
Notes may be used for comments and additional information only. In general, if something is worth saying, it is worth saying in the text itself. A note will divert the reader’s attention away from your argument. If you think a note is necessary, make it as brief and to the point as possible. Use Word’s note-making facility, and ensure that your notes are endnotes, not footnotes. Place note calls outside the punctuation, so after the comma or the full stop. The note call must be in superscripted Arabic (1, 2, 3).

OPINION
The views expressed in CJCS are those of the authors, and do not necessarily coincide with those of the Editors or the Editorial Advisory Boards.

PERMISSIONS/COPYRIGHT/LIABILITY
Copyright clearance should be indicated by the contributor and is always the responsibility of the contributor. Unless a specific agreement has been made, accepted articles become the copyright of the journal. Once an article has been accepted for publication the copyright clearance form should be completed and sent to the Editors. An electronic template of the form is available from the journal office, address above.

PRESENTATION/HOUSE STYLE
All articles should be written in Word. The font should be Times New Roman, 12 point. The title of your article should be in bold at the beginning of the file, but not enclosed in quote marks. Bold is also used for headings and subheadings (which should also be in Times New Roman, 12 point) in the article. Italics may be used (sparingly) to indicate key concepts.

Any matters concerning the format and presentation of articles not covered by the above notes should be addressed to the Editor at catalan.journal@urv.cat

QUOTATIONS
Intellect’s style for quotations embedded into a paragraph is single quote marks, with double quote marks for a second quotation contained within the first. All long quotations (i.e. over 40 words long) should be ‘displayed’ – i.e. set into a separate indented paragraph with an additional one-line space above and below, and without quote marks at the beginning or end. Please note that for quotations within the text, the punctuation should follow the bracketed reference. For a displayed quotation the bracketed reference appears after the full stop.

All omissions in a quotation are indicated thus: [...] Note that there are no spaces between the suspension points.

When italics are used for emphasis within quotations, please ensure that you indicate whether the emphasis is from the original text or whether you are adding it to make a point.

REFERENCES
CJCS is a refereed journal. Strict anonymity is accorded to both authors and referees.

REFERENCES
At CJCS we use the Harvard referencing system. It is a flexible and simple system, easy to use for the author as well as the reader.

Should you need additional information, there are a number of excellent Harvard referencing system sites on the Web such as:

• http://libweb.anglia.ac.uk/referencing/harvard.htm
• http://www.leedsmet.ac.uk/lskills/open/sfl/content/harvard/

All references in the text should be like the following example: (Bordwell 1989: 9). Please observe that there is no comma between author and date. When the author is included in the text, then Bordwell (1989: 9); when several authors are referenced they must be ordered alphabetically (Altheide 2003, Joye 2010, Renn 2010); and when three authors or more write an article then (Farré et al. 2013). The default term used for this list is ‘References’. Please do not group films together under a separate ‘Films cited’ heading. Instead, incorporate all films into the main body of references and list them alphabetically by director. The same rule applies to television programmes/music/new media: identify the director/composer and list alphabetically alongside books, journals and papers.

Please note in particular:
• Titles should be translated into English where appropriate.
• ‘Anon.’ for items for which you do not have an author (because all items must be referenced with an author within the text)
• A blank line is entered between references
• Year date of publication in brackets
• Commas, not full stops, between parts of each reference
• Absence of ‘in’ after the title of a chapter if the reference relates to an article in a journal or newspaper.
• Name of translator of a book within brackets after title and preceded by ‘trans.’, not ‘transl.’ or ‘translated by’.
• Absence of ‘no.’ for the journal number, a colon between journal volume and number.
• ‘pp.’ before page extents.

The following samples indicate conventions for the most common types of reference:

BOOK
ARTICLE IN A JOURNAL

ARTICLE IN A BOOK

CONFERENCE PAPER

FILMS

TV PROGRAMMES
Game of Thrones (2011–present, USA: HBO).

NEWSPAPER ARTICLE

DOCTORAL THESIS

UNPUBLISHED WORKS

TRANSLATIONS
If readers are unlikely to understand the title of a non-English-language work in your text (and references), the title in the original language may be accompanied by an English translation by the author, especially if its sense is not implied by the surrounding text. This applies to all types of work (journal article, book, film etc.).

Unofficial translations (e.g. those by the author) should be placed in quotation marks with parentheses, in roman type with an initial capital on the first word of title and subtitle.

The official titles of published translations are set in italics inside parentheses.

Zhang, Zimou (2004), Shi mian mai fu (House of Flying Daggers), China: Beijing New Picture Film Co.

PERSONAL COMMUNICATIONS
Personal communications are what the informant said directly to the author, e.g. ‘Pam loved the drums (personal communication)’. This needs no citation in the references list. Equally the use of personal communications need not refer back to a named informant. However, a more formal research interview can be cited in the text (Jamieson 12 August 2004 interview), and in the references list.
