

NOTES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

AIMS AND SCOPE OF FASHION, STYLE & POPULAR CULTURE

Fashion, Style & Popular Culture is a peer-reviewed journal specifically dedicated to the area of fashion scholarship and its interfacings with popular culture. It was established to provide an interdisciplinary environment for fashion academics and practitioners to publish innovative scholarship in all aspects of fashion and popular culture relating to design, textiles, production, promotion, consumption and appearance-related products and services. Articles related to history, manufacturing, aesthetics, sourcing, marketing, branding, merchandising, retailing, technology, psychological/sociological aspects of dress, style, body image, and cultural identities, as well as purchasing, shopping, and the ways and means consumers construct identity as associated to Fashion, Style & Popular Culture are welcomed.

The journal offers a broad range of written and visual scholarship and includes works done through various methods of research. We welcome conceptual, theoretical and translational applied research in the areas of fashion, style and popular culture. This journal hopes to stimulate new discussions in the fashion disciplines and to push the envelope of scholarship by welcoming new and established scholars to submit their works.

DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION

Intellect is committed to creating a diverse and inclusive space for the benefit of its authors, editors, staff and the wider academic community. For more information and resources, including our Inclusive Language Guide, Author Fund, Language Ambassadors and name-change policy, please consult our website: <https://www.intellect-books.com/diversity>.

ILLUSTRATIONS

We welcome images illustrating an article. All images need a resolution of at least 300 dpi. All images should be supplied independently of the article, not embedded into the text itself. The files should be clearly labelled and an indication given as to where they should be placed in the text. Print reproduction will usually be in black and white, whereas images can be in full colour in the online version.

The image should always be accompanied by a suitable caption (the omission of a caption is only acceptable if you feel that the impact of the image would be reduced by the provision of written context). The following is the agreed style for captions:

Please note the colon after the number and the terminating full point, even if the caption is not a full sentence. Copyright clearance should be indicated by the contributor and is always the responsibility of the contributor.

ALTERNATIVE TEXT

As part of Intellect's commitment to fairness and accessibility, we ask our authors to provide descriptive text alternatives for all images, graphs, figures, etc. in your work. Useful guidelines can be found at the Diagram Center website and the Describing Visual Resources website. All Intellect journal content published from August 2023 onwards includes alternative text for all visual and audio material.

LANGUAGE

The journal follows standard British English. Use 'ize' endings instead of 'ise'.

LANGUAGE EDITING WITH ENAGO

Intellect has partnered with language-editing service Enago to offer a trusted service for potential contributors who would like copy-editing and/or translation assistance prior to submitting their work for consideration. Enago offers two tiers of copy-editing: standard and substantive. All of their editors are native English speakers and every manuscript is matched to an editor with highly specialized subject-area expertise. As a contributor to an Intellect journal, you are eligible for a 20% discount on Enago's services: <https://www.enago.com/pub/intellectbooks/>.

LENGTH OF ARTICLES

Articles should be between 5000–7500 words including notes, references, contributor biography, keywords and abstract.

METADATA AND SUBMISSION

Contributors must check that each of the following have been supplied correctly for peer review and copy-editing:

- Article title, or
- (for book reviews) Title of Publication, Author or Editor Name/s (ed./eds) (Year), Edition number if not first, City: Publisher, number of pages, ISBN 123-1-12345-123-1, h/bk or p/bk, price.
- Contributor name and college/university or affiliation.
- Contributor addresses – the submitted material should include details of the full postal and a single e-mail address for each contributor for publication.
- Contributor biography – contributors should include a short biography of 50–100 words, specifying the institution with which they are affiliated.
- Contributor ORCID identifier. This must be supplied in the following format: <https://orcid.org/0000-0002-1825-0097>. If you do not yet have an ORCID identifier, please register here: <https://orcid.org/register>.

- Contributor publishing agreement giving us your permission to publish your article should it be accepted by our peer review panel. An electronic template is available from the Intellect website.
- Abstract of 200–300 words; this will go on to the Intellect website (not required for book reviews).
- Keywords – six words, or two-word phrases. There is a serious reduction in an article's ability to be searched for if the keywords are missing (not required for book reviews).
- The text – your article of no more than 7500 words (contact editor if larger), anonymized for peer review. Do not send article in separate sections. One single document.
- References – Intellect requires the use of Harvard references embedded in the main text in the following format (Harper 1999: 27).
- Bibliography – titled 'References', containing only works that have been cited in-text. Any entries you wish to include that have not been cited directly should be limited and should appear in a second 'Further Reading' list. Format this list using the same conventions as for references.
- Funding statement, including funder name and grant number (if applicable).
- Ethical Statement and Conflict of Interest Statement.

We do not use Google Docs, Microsoft Teams or any other word processing cloud supported programs for submission, copy-editing and proofing. Please follow all directions via the journal editor.

NOTES

Notes may be used for comments and additional information only. In general, if something is worth saying, it is worth saying in the text itself. A note will divert the reader's attention away from your argument. If you think a note is necessary, make it as brief and to the point as possible. Use Word's note-making facility, and ensure that your notes are endnotes, not footnotes. Place note calls outside the punctuation, so AFTER the comma or the full stop. The note call must be in superscripted Arabic (1, 2, 3).

OPINION

The views expressed in Fashion, Style & Popular Culture are those of the authors, and do not necessarily coincide with those of the editors or the editorial or advisory boards.

PERMISSIONS/COPYRIGHT/LIABILITY

Copyright clearance for non-original material included in the manuscript (e.g., images) should be indicated by the contributor and is always the responsibility of the contributor. The contributor publishing agreement, which also details which version of a contributor's own article remains their copyright, should be completed and sent to the editors to accompany every submission.

ETHICAL GUIDELINES

If your work involves live subjects (human or animal), you must seek written consent from the party or caregiver. All research involving animal subjects must have been reviewed and approved by an ethics committee prior to commencing the study and performed in accordance with relevant institutional and national guidelines and regulations. A statement identifying the institutional and/or licensing committee approving the experiments must be included in the Ethics Statement of the article, following the guidelines set out on our website: <https://www.intellectbooks.com/ethical-guidelines#human-animal-subjects>. You should also include any information here about workshops or interviews with vulnerable groups undertaken during research, photographed groups engaging in work relating to the research, etc. You must have written consent from all persons featured in images reproduced in your contribution.

PRESENTATION/HOUSE STYLE

All articles should be written in Word. The font should be Times New Roman, 12 point. The title of your article should be in bold at the beginning of the file, but not enclosed in quote marks. Bold is also used for headings and subheadings (which should also be in Times New Roman, 12 point) in the article. Italics may be used (sparingly) to indicate key concepts.

Any matters concerning the format and presentation of articles not covered by the above notes should be addressed to the Editor.

QUOTATIONS

Intellect's style for quotations embedded into a paragraph is single quote marks, with double quote marks for a second quotation contained within the first. All long quotations (i.e. over 40 words long) should be 'displayed' – i.e. set into a separate indented paragraph with an additional one-line space above and below, and without quote marks at the beginning or end. Please note that for quotations within the text, the punctuation should follow the bracketed reference. For a displayed quotation the bracketed reference appears after the full stop.

All omissions in a quotation are indicated thus: [...] Note that there are no spaces between the suspension points.

When italics are used for emphasis within quotations, please ensure that you indicate whether the emphasis is from the original text or whether you are adding it to make a point.

REFEREES

Fashion, Style & Popular Culture is a refereed journal. Strict anonymity is accorded to both authors and referees.

REFERENCES

All citations in the text should be according to the Harvard system, e.g. (Bordwell 1989: 9). The default term used for this list is 'References'. The 'References' list should only contain works that have been directly cited in-text. Anything else should be included in a second 'Further Reading' list. Please do not group films together under a separate 'Films cited' heading. Instead, incorporate all films alongside books, journals and papers, alphabetically by director. The same rule applies to music: identify the composer and list alphabetically. Television programmes are listed under the name of the programme and/or the episode title. Please note in particular:

- ‘Anon.’ for items for which you do not have an author (because all items must be referenced with an author within the text)
- A blank line is entered between references
- Year date of publication in brackets
- Commas, not full stops, between parts of each reference
- Absence of ‘in’ after the title of a chapter if the reference relates to an article in a journal or newspaper.
- Name of translator of a book within brackets after title and preceded by ‘trans.’, not ‘transl.’ or ‘translated by’.
- Absence of ‘no.’ for the journal number, a colon between journal volume and number.
- ‘pp.’ before page extents.

The following samples indicate conventions for the most common types of reference:

PERSONAL COMMUNICATIONS

Unless an informal conversation, interviews can be cited in text and included in the references. In the references, the name of interviewer/interviewee, type of communication, location, day and month should be included [if available].

WEBSITE REFERENCES

Website references are similar to other references.

There is no need to decipher any place of publication or a specific publisher, but the reference must have an author, and the author must be referenced Harvard-style within the text. Unlike paper references, however, web pages can change, so there needs to be a date of access as well as the full web reference. Website or blog titles should be in roman font. In the list of references at the end of your article, the item should read something like this:

Kermode, Mark (2017), ‘Audience appreciation’, Kermode Uncut, 17 November, <http://www.bbc.co.uk/blogs/markkermode/entries/61bec71c-916d-4a13-a782-79c3afb3c2b9>. Accessed 20 November 2017.

SUBMISSION PROCEDURES

Articles submitted to Fashion, Style & Popular Culture should be original and not under consideration by any other publication. Contributions should be submitted electronically through the journal webpage. Books for review should be sent to the Reviews Editor, c/o the Editorial Office.

The guidance on this page is by no means comprehensive: it must be read in conjunction with the Intellect Style Guide. The Intellect Style Guide is obtainable from <https://www.intellectbooks.com/journal-editors-and-contributors>, or on request from the Editor of this journal.
